

Service 6 : Project and Program Management Services

Bhilwara Consulting Group can move your company forward through Program and Project Management consulting, training, and/or contract services.

Do you have a list of critical business initiatives or projects that absolutely must get done to succeed in the marketplace?

Most companies know what those "hot projects" are, but lack the tools, methods and skilled resources for getting them done. BRMC provides Project and Program Management Services to get -- and keep -- your company going!

We can train your folks in what they need to know to be practical and successful Project and Program professionals...we are a Trainer too.

We provide Project and Program Management resources on a contract basis, working under your direction with BRMC's training, methods and tools.
