

Service 7 : ERP/CRM Implementation Support

Bhilwara Consulting Group can support your company with best in class change management/operations integration of your big technology insertion.

While the systems integrator focuses on managing the technical risk of the system implementation, we focus on ensuring that the user community is fully ready to use the advantages of the new system at go live.

We help organizations integrate information technology solutions into full utilization.

In Customer Relationship Management, we aim to reinvent marketing and customer management for the digital age. You will be helping clients create a superior experience for their customers and enhance the value of their relationships with them by combining knowledge and expertise with the latest tools and technologies.